

As a Sioux City resident who listens to K-LOVE in my home and car our entire family depends upon it for news, weather, and last but not least the high quality of music. There is not another station of this caliber in the area. If we lost the frequency it would definitely limit the local listening options.